

A short CV of Prof. Xiao Yun. Zheng

Mr. Xiao Yun. Zheng (Zheng, Xiao Yun) is a full distinguished professor in Hubei University, and president of China Institute of Yangtze River Studies, China. He is an anthropologist, hydrologist and historian in the fields of water history, water culture and water management. He is the former president of International Water History Association (formed by UNESCO). Currently he is president of International Association of River Civilization and Heritage, a scientific advisor of UNESCO's Global Water Museum Network, vice president of Chinese Water Museum Alliance, member of France Academy of Water. He was awarded the Honorary PHD by Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece, Honorary Professor of Vietnam National Institute of Culture and Art, etc. Currently he is guest professor in series of universities in China and internationally. He has published 25 books and more than 300 papers in China and international.